

NERO Supported Policy:

The NERO membership supports the position that: “Mislaidd Eggs should not be included in the table egg market”

Mislaidd Egg – is a shell egg of the domestic chicken destined for the table egg market that has been laid in a location that increases exposure to potential contaminants and cannot be collected in an effective, efficient and hygienic manner. This includes eggs that were excluded from the previous days collection.